It's time to check your Feng Shui when.....

- When constructing a new house
- When buying a new house, office or property
- When renovating your home
- When suddenly facing too many challenges or problems
- When facing recurring health problems
- When relationships get difficult and solutions don't come easy
- When you want to attract the right kind of relationship
- When there is a sudden upward or downward swing in income
- When there is a sudden upward or downward swing in business
- When facing personal or emotional problems
- When shifting permanently to another town, city, or country
- When business is going down hill by known or unknown reasons
- Family is facing discord or crisis
- In order to boost work, improve relationships with clients or staff
